Who the information is processed about

We process personal information about:

- customers
- tenants
- professional advisers and consultants
- complainants, enquirers
- suppliers
- landlords
- employees

Who the information may be shared with

We sometimes need to share the personal information we process with the individual themselves and also with other organisations. Where this is necessary we are required to comply with all aspects of the Data Protection Act (DPA). What follows is a description of the types of organisations we may need to share some of the personal information we process with for one or more reasons.

Where necessary or required we share information with:

- business associates
- suppliers of goods or services
- financial organisations
- credit reference agencies
- debt collection and tracing agencies
- local and central government
- police forces
- security organisations
- current, past and prospective employers
- employment and recruitment agencies
- educators and examining bodies
- other companies in the same group

Transfers

It may sometimes be necessary to transfer personal information overseas. When this is needed information is only shared within the European Economic Area (EEA). Any transfers made will be in full compliance with all aspects of the data protection act.
